

NHS COMPETITION

Pupils are tasked with saying “thank you to the NHS” after their learning in the core resources about the job roles and opportunities available.

Students should be encouraged to reflect on which job or team they want to say thank you to and create the thank you.

- Think about the wide range of jobs they have learnt about
- Surprising facts they have collected
- Think about how the NHS has helped them, one of their friends or family.

What you need to do

- Creative artwork: painting, drawing, temporary street artwork, performance, video or slideshow OR
- Creative writing: a story, song, poem or thank you card
- Entries must be submitted online.
- Pupils can enter individually or as a pair.

Entries

Entries must be received no later than 19 June 2020. The original deadline has been extended to allow more schools to say thanks to NHS staff across the country while offering schools a project for their students to work on in school or at home.

Overall national winning student(s) will receive Amazon vouchers worth £50. Overall national winner(s) school will be offered a class trip to a local science venue but alternatives can be discussed with the winning school if it is deemed inappropriate.

Prizes

Ten regional winners will each receive an Amazon voucher worth £25.

Highly commended certificates will also be awarded.

Whether they enter individually or as a pair, each pupil will receive a prize if their entry is chosen
