So how does it all work?

Important information

Everybody in the world has their own personal worldview and this can be religious or non-religious. There are similarities and differences between these different worldviews.

All worldviews have different moral ways of living and this affects how people treat other people and the world around them.

A Christian will have values which are based on the life of Jesus and the teachings of the Christian Church. For many Christians the Bible has authority because for many it is the Word of God.

People who hold Humanism as a world view will have the belief that they should be free to work out for themselves what makes us happy and that we should be kind to the planet and animals. A person who holds this worldview is known as a Humanist. Not all non-religious people are humanists.

Treating others as we want to be treated can be found in many worldviews and is called The Golden Rule.
