

Daily Writing Lessons

Week beginning 6th July 2020

Monday 6 th July	Read a story. • Read Ananse and the Pot of Wisdom. • How would you describe the character of Ananse? Can you make up three sentences to describe him? Do you think what happened to him was fair? Why? 2. Summarise the story • Use words and pictures to put the story on Story Summary. • Try using your summary to help you tell the story to somebody else. 3. Practise using conjunctions • Use the PowerPoint 1 or Revision Card to remind yourself about verbs, verb phrases, clauses and conjunctions. • Complete Multi Clause Sentences 1. • Challenge yourself to complete Multi Clause Sentences 2.
Tuesday 7 th July	Read Why Pig Has a Short Snout. • How does it compare to the other Ananse story you read? What is similar? What is different? Which do you prefer? Why? 2. Make a summary of the story • Use words and pictures to make a summary of the story on Story Summary. • Try using your summary to help you to tell the story to somebody else. 3. Learn about conjunctions for time, place and cause. • Use the PowerPoint 2 or Revision Card to learn about using conjunctions for time, place and cause. • Complete Conjunctions for Time, Place and Cause 1 and 2.
Wednesday 8 th July	Look carefully at the Bird Illustration. It is from a story about Ananse. • Make notes about what you notice. Can you spot 10 different things? Ask somebody else to test you e.g. What is the colour of the feather near the owl? 2. Make up a story • Use the Story Summary to make up a story about Ananse and the Birds. • Start with the second box and then think about how the story could start and how it could end. • Use your notes from the Bird Illustration to help you with the third box.
Thursday 9 th July	Read a set of poems • Read the four nature poems: The Garden Year; First Primrose; Colouring In; Autumn Fires. • You could also challenge yourself to read Snow in the Suburbs. • Choose your favourite of these poems. Why do you like it? 2. Answer questions about your favourite poem • Use Poetry Questions and think about your favourite poem. • Read each of the sets of questions, think about your answer and then carefully write it down.
Friday 10 th July	Read and learn a poem o Read Keep a poem in your pocket. Read it twice: the first time in your head and the second time out loud. What do you think it means? How could a poem stop you from being lonely? o Read Top tips for learning a poem by heart. Try memorising the poem, 'Keep a poem in your pocket'. 2. Make a comparison between two poems o Use your favourite poem from yesterday and one other poem. o Pick the Compare Frame, the Contrast Frame or the Compare/Contrast Frame. o Fill it in to compare or contrast the two poems.

