

Reading

- Complete the SPAG mat.
- Pick a different text to read at home – information, newspaper report, story or a poem. Use the comprehension guides to select 5 tasks to complete with the text.
- Complete the Henry VIII comprehension- use the stars to pick the level of difficulty for you.
- Read to a family member as often as you can!

Maths

- This week we're focusing on multi-step problems. We'll be practising skills in using the four operations and applying them in single step problems, before moving onto multi-step problems. There is also an arithmetic paper.

Spelling

- Read through the spellings that are attached- pick some of the spellings you find tricky and put them into sentences.

Writing

- Complete the worksheet on up levelling sentences about family.
- Complete the worksheet on up levelling sentences about stalking prey.
- Write a poem for our heroes in blue. You can choose how to layout your poem. Plan your poem by brainstorming the vocabulary you may use. Add drawings or pictures- please tweet them!
- Rewrite the ending to the last book you read. It's important to plan this out before you begin to write. Consider carefully how it is going to be different and how it's going to effect the story.
- Uplevel the ending to your story. Could you have used better vocabulary? Have you used a variety of punctuation? Draw a picture highlighting the difference in your ending.

Year 5 Home Learning Projects – Week Beginning 25th May

PSHE and RE

- Examine Jesus' teaching about the two greatest commandments – to love God and love your neighbour (Matthew 22:3640). How do these help Christians to decide how to live?
- Watch this youtube video on the Good Samaritan to help you with your explanation:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MLzdQtetdc>
- Read through the statement cards with an adult at home. Discuss with them whether or not they are healthy or unhealthy decisions. Discuss your reasons.

History

- What clothes did the Tudors wear?
- What materials did they use?
- Why do you think they wore clothes like this?
- Imagine you are given the opportunity to interview Henry VIII- what would you ask him?
- How do you think he'd respond to your questions?
