

A colorful illustration of a woman wearing a light blue hijab and a purple long-sleeved dress, smiling. She is standing in front of a mosque with a large green dome and minarets. The sky is light blue with pink and orange clouds. A green banner across the middle contains the title text.

My Ramadan Experience

twinkl

This Is Shamsa

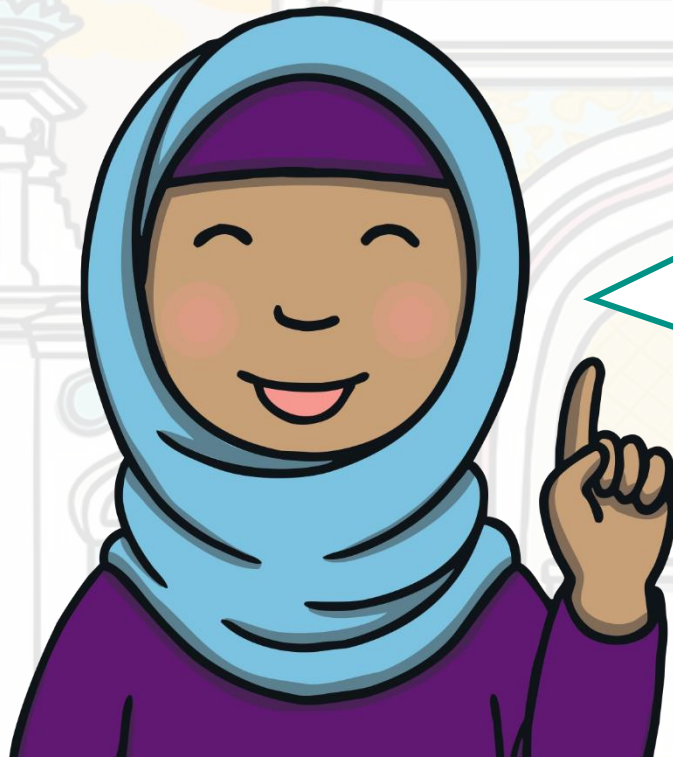

Hello. My name is Shamsa. This is a very special time for my family because it is Ramadan. My family and I are Muslim.

What Is Ramadan?

During Ramadan, grown-ups and older children do not eat when the sun is in the sky. This is called fasting.

My mum and dad eat a meal before the sun rise, called suhoor, and a meal when the sun sets, called Iftar.

I am too young to fast at the moment.

Being Kind

During Ramadan, I try to be really kind to other people. Everyday, I try to do a good deed.

Today, I am helping my dad by cleaning his car.

Prayer

During Ramadan, we pray more than normal. Sometimes, I pray at the Mosque and sometimes, I pray at home.

This is my Mosque. It has a domed roof and a Minaret. The Minaret is a tall tower, which is used to call everyone to prayer.

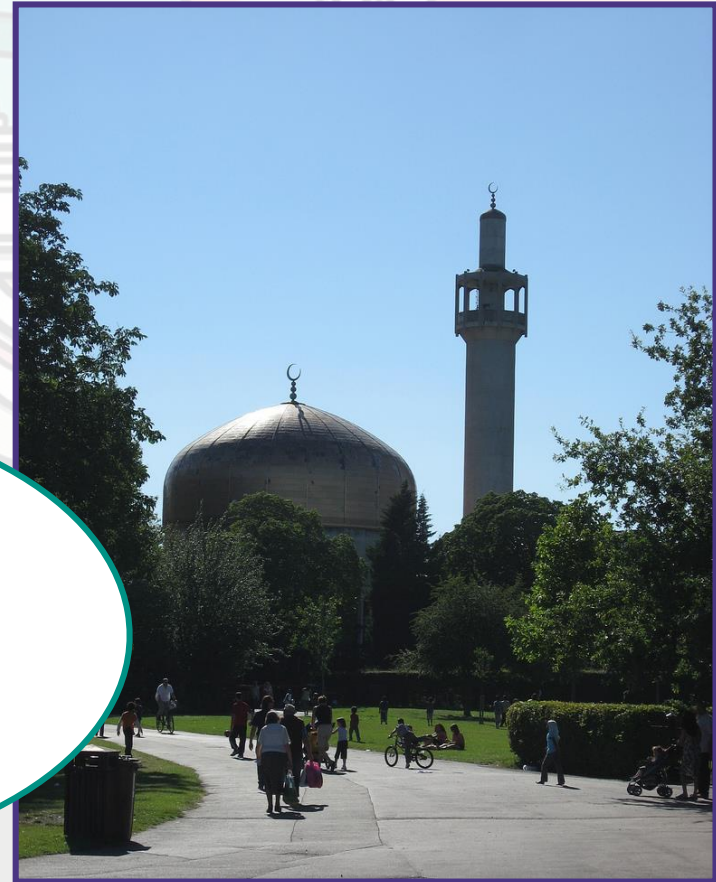

Photo courtesy of Kai Hendry (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

How Long Does Ramadan Last For?

Ramadan last for 29 or 30 days. We know that it is the end of Ramadan when a new crescent moon is spotted in the sky.

I look in the sky
for the new crescent moon.

Eid Al-Fitr

At the end of Ramadan, we have a big celebration, called Eid al-Fitr. We wear our best clothes and eat lots of yummy foods. I help my mum to cook food for our family.

Photo courtesy of raasiel (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

twinkl