Islam

Islam is the world's second largest religion. It teaches that God is merciful, powerful and unique and that people can call on God when they are in need and distressed. He is known as Allah.

It is believed that the last prophet was Muhammad. Prophet Muhammad is so important to Muslims that whenever they say his name, they also say 'Peace be upon him', and when they write his name they write it but sometimes shorten it to PBUH.

Did you know...? The word prophet means 'messenger'.

The Qur'an

The Qur'an, which is written in Arabic, is the scripture of Islam. Muslims believe it was revealed by God to a number of prophets and that it is the word of God. It provides guidance to teach people right and wrong.

Anyone who handles or touches the Qur'an has to follow certain rules. They must be clean and wash in special ways called ablutions. People who are not Muslim cannot touch the Qur'an.

Prophet Muhammad

Over the next 22 years, Muhammad received revelations from God. These revelations were written down as the Qur'an. From that time, Muhammad was known as Prophet Muhammad and he preached about the revelations for the rest of his life. He is recognised as the founder of Islam.

Prophet Muhammad believed God had chosen him to preach what had been revealed to him and tell the world.

The principle message is that there is no God but Allah and that life should be lived in submission to Allah.
