This page can be used for both task 1 and task 2. Feel free to scribble and annotate etc as this is a planning document!

Task 1

For this task we'd like you to focus on your report title, sub-titles and captions only. Use last week's learning to remind yourself of what these are. The aim is to 'encourage' people to want to read your report so all title need to be short, catchy and intriguing. Questions often effective for example 'How did the fire start?' but other writing tools like alliteration can also be effective! The topic for the whole report is obviously The Great Fire of London (title) and the 3 sub-titles are for the following topics or areas:

- 1. The start of the fire.
- 2. The fire spreading.
- 3. The end of the fire.

Task 2

Now we'd like you to think about what you want to write about in each section of your report. We'd like you to aim for 3 or 4 sentences in each section so you might need around 5 or 6 facts. You can use your prior knowledge from our history studies and all previous resources that should still be on our website. We have
