E

Address: Dorothy Parkes Centre, Church Road, Smethwick, West Midlands, B67 6EH

Email: projects@dorothyparkes.org

Web: www.dorothyparkes.org

The Dorothy Parkes Centre offers various projects providing support to improve wellbeing.

Allotment – Weekly volunteer sessions where everyone is welcome to get involved. Activities vary with the changing seasons and can include sowing seeds, potting on plants, preparing raised beds, planting, weeding, and general plot maintenance. Staff are always happy to share their knowledge of organic growing and inspire others to grow their own food.

All of the fresh produce grown at the allotment is shared through Dottie's Community Fridge, making sure nothing goes to waste and everyone has access to healthy food. It is also used in our cookery classes, Together We Cook at the community centre, helping local people learn new skills, try new recipes, and enjoy the harvest together.

As well as volunteer sessions, the allotment also hosts art sessions, theatre workshops and performances, wellness workshops, team building away days and weekend nature sessions for families with young children.

Nestled in the heart of Smethwick, the allotment is a little green oasis, a space away from the hustle and bustle of daily life. It offers a chance to reconnect with nature, learn new skills, and make new friends.

Gentle Yoga – Are you looking to unwind, stretch, and reconnect with yourself? Our Gentle Yoga sessions offer a peaceful and supportive environment to explore movement, breath, and relaxation, perfect for all levels of experience.

Sessions take place every Monday 1.30pm – 2.30pm and Wednesdays 10.30am – 11.30am and cost £4.00 per session.

The classes combine breath work and physical movement to help regulate the nervous system while gently building muscle strength, flexibility, and balance. You'll be guided through postures held for 3–5 breaths, encouraging deeper connection to your body and breath.

Each session ends with a short, guided relaxation, leaving you feeling calm, refreshed, and centred.

- Suitable for all levels of yoga experience
- Variations offered for all postures
- Yoga props encouraged to support your practice

Whether you're new to yoga or looking for a gentler approach, this class is a great way to care for your body and mind.

Healthy Sandwell is the council's Public Health frontline team, dedicated to improving the wellbeing of our residents through a wide range of lifestyle support services. These include stop smoking programmes, mental health support, weight management and physical activity initiatives. The team is highly trained in behaviour change techniques and can refer individuals to a broad network of services tailored to their physical, emotional, and social needs. They take a holistic approach to health, using social prescribing to connect people with local resources from walking and cycling groups to social clubs. All commissioned services are free for Sandwell residents. For those living outside the borough, our team is still available to offer guidance and signposting to appropriate services.

We are also leading on the Make Every Contact Count (MECC) initiative, offering free training to partners across the community. MECC empowers frontline staff to have meaningful conversations that promote healthier lifestyles and stronger community support. It isn't just a stand-alone programme it's a mindset that helps embed positive, non-judgemental, and empowering conversations into everyday practice. Every interaction becomes an opportunity to make a difference. MECC supports us to deliver consistent, concise health and wellbeing messages and encourages meaningful conversations across teams and communities.

Internal staff can complete the MECC training by logging onto Oracle and searching for "Make Every Contact Count" in the eLearning section.

The Active LGBTQ+ project delivers physical activities for LGBTQ+ individuals of any age who live in Sandwell. The activities will be flexible, to meet the needs of the LGBTQ+ individuals, ensuring that there is every opportunity for all to take part in the project, and fostering social connections.

The project will carry out the following activities:

- Activity 1: LGBTQ+ running group

The LGBTQ+ running group will be led by an experienced member of the community completing a lead running course. The group will meet bi-weekly at the Friar Park Millennium Centre. Open to all abilities, the group will follow a coach-to-5k program and provide opportunities for experienced runners. The aim is to enhance enjoyment through participation in parkrun events, followed by social breakfasts. Participants can walk or jog without pressure regarding their abilities.

- Activity 2: LGBTQ+ cycling group

The LGBTQ+ cycling group will be offered bi-weekly, supported by a partner from Cycling UK who will provide bikes and lead some rides. Staff members will obtain ride leader qualifications to ensure safety and enjoyment. Rides will be leisurely and open to all skill levels, with one-on-one sessions available for those seeking to build confidence. The group will also connect with other LGBTQ+ organizations, such as those in Birmingham, to foster social interactions and create opportunities for members to meet new people.

- Activity 3: Indoor multi sports games

The indoor sports hall will offer facilities for various multi-sport games, including netball, tennis, badminton, and squash. These activities will be organized based on the preferences of the group.
